WORLD PROGRESS

WORLD PROBLEMS

TRAVEL AND RECREATION

STIMULATING THOUGHT

and Rotary Doings of All Descriptions

This Magazine treats them all . . . concisely, interestingly.

That's why many readers keep each issue for their permanent libraries. Why don't you?

The finest way to save each year's twelve issues is in a handsome bound volume of durable blue buckram, lettered in gold.

THE ROTARIAN Magazine is a reference "must" for every Rotarian . . . and THE ROTARIAN bound volume is a credit to his good taste.

Order a bound volume of 1969 issues today: just $6.00 delivered in the U.S.A.; $6.50 elsewhere. Bound volumes for previous years also available.

Write THE ROTARIAN, 1600 Ridge Avenue, Evanston, Illinois 60201, U.S.A.

"None of our problems is insoluble. The question is whether we as individuals, with a high sense of spiritual value, can keep abreast of technology, control it, and use it for humanity."

—Najeeb Halaby (1969)

"To preserve the moral and spiritual values of democratic institutions and at the same time to be able to govern this new technological society effectively is a problem which will haunt us for a long time to come."

—Walter Lippman (1967)

"When people of goodwill work together for a cause they hold dear, and if they have the strength to live with uncertainty, there is hardly any obstacle that cannot be overcome."

—Willy Brandt (1963)

"This generation has the responsibility for deciding whether the human race is to prosper or decline, whether our conduct will lead to a beginning or an end. . . . It is the crisis of the human race."

—Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan (1958)

"The last 30 years have taught us hatred of tyranny. No longer to dare to speak, to write, to think—is no longer to live. One might as well die fighting for freedom."

—Andre Maurois (1953)

"Keep an engine clean and it's a better engine. Keep a mind clean and it's a clearer mind. There is a lot to that old Biblical statement that cleanliness is next to godliness; it is next to prosperity also."

—Henry Ford (1947)

"Do not deceive yourself: the world is not going to be a new world; you will have to put up with the old one with occasional Spring cleanings."

—George Bernard Shaw (1945)

Preservable thoughts? We think so . . .

And many of our readers do, too. They've preserved these and other great thoughts from the pages of THE ROTARIAN in convenient, attractive binders, each designed to hold a year's twelve issues. THE ROTARIAN binder is a handsome addition to your library shelf. Order one for each year of your subscription: $5.00 delivered in the U.S.A.; $5.50 elsewhere.
